

Durham University
Institute for Medieval and Renaissance Studies

The Ordered Universe:

Interdisciplinary Readings of Medieval Science in England, 1100-1400

Workshop 1:

'The Ordered Universe': Definitions, Historiography, Methodology and Scope

9th July, 2010, St John's College, Durham University

10am–5 am (followed by dinner)

Participants include:

Principal External Advisor:

*Professor Faith
Wallis ,
McGill
University*

Professor Tom McLeish (Physics, Durham), Dr
Giles Gasper (History, Durham), Dr Neil Cartlidge
(English, Durham), Professor Jon Davidson (Earth Sciences, Durham),

Jay Diehl (New York University), Judith Dunthorne (History, Durham), Gemma Wain (History, Durham), David Baker (English, Durham)

Topics for discussion:

- General outline of project.
- What science means; what scientia means.
- Literary language and science.
- Scope and range of project.
- Background to the 12th century,

Please contact: Dr Giles Gasper (g.e.m.gasper@durham.ac.uk) or Dr Neil Cartlidge
(n.m.r.cartlidge@durham.ac.uk) for further information

IMRS Summer Research Workshops 2010